

Music

Education Conference

‘Making Connections’
Friday 11th July 2008
at Bath Spa University

‘A good forum for learning and connecting with people’ July 2007

‘Very hands on and loads of practical ideas to take back to the classroom’

Key Note Speaker David Price

David is an Arts and Education Consultant. He is project leader of the Paul Hamlyn Foundation Musical Futures Project and writes and speaks regularly on education and creativity.

‘Enthusiastic and passionate workshop leaders’

Workshops include:

Singing (including Val Whitlock - author of ‘Singing Sherlock’) African body percussion, podcasting, taiko drumming, singing, ideas for whiteboards, recording, whole class instrumental teaching, class teaching in KS1, 2 & 3, Music Technology, song writing and more!

£80 includes 3 workshops, lunch and refreshments

For more information and a booking form go to:
<http://www.bathspa.ac.uk/services/conference-and-events/conferences/>

Doc Ref: B350 6 006 08

