

Award winning Festival of Youth Sport 2004

This year's festival had an Olympic theme with schools being given countries to research and to produce banners and flags to parade at the opening ceremony. Like the Olympics, the opening parade provided an opportunity to learn about other cultures, which helps to break down barriers through improving knowledge and understanding.

This also ensured we were able to link with 'Engage 2004' - Celebrating culture and life in South Gloucestershire.

