

Susie joined the women's England Rugby team in 1994 and has an impressive 51 England caps to her name as both England fly half and scrum half.

Voted Player of the Year in 1999/2000, captain of the England team at the Bermuda Classics in 2001 and 2002, Susie has made a real mark in the women's rugby world.

Her experience and tenacity for the game secured her a place in the Hong Kong 7's in 1997, 1999 and 2001. She was also in the England team that made it to the finals in the 2002 Women's Rugby World Cup.

Her leadership skills have seen her captain a Birmingham University Women's team University side to become student league and cup winner since 1992, and her current captaincy at Clifton to become 2002 Cup winners. Her time at Saracens saw her gain honours in the League and National sevens in 1998 and 1999 and she has also played her part for Novocastrains.

Susie has an impressive academic record, she is committed and resourceful with proven leadership skills and is a very effective communicator. She is a qualified rugby and tennis coach and has had first hand experience in the development of school sport within the UK.

With a six-year career in the police force and latterly a move into the world of sports marketing, Susie has a wealth of information to share on a variety of different cultures and organisations.
